

Hope

Faludi International Youth Film Festival and Photo Competition 2011.

10-12. November 2011. Uránia National Film Theatre Budapest, Hungary

The Ferenc Faludi Academy announces its XV. thematic international youth film festival and a photo competition in connection. The competitors can process the theme "HOPE" in the form of film or photo according to the conditions of the festival. We are looking for professionally demanding elaborated works which are suitable for creating a forum, in the language of pictures, for the dialogue of different viewpoints and opinions.

Deadline for entries: 12. October 2011

Prizes in the value of: 5700 EUR

The films will be evaluated and awarded by the National Student Jury as well.

Conditions of Competition Film

- For the film festival primarily we are waiting for the application of young non-professional and film university student, filmmakers or creative communities, but we have no age restrictions. Everybody can apply with the maximum of 2 films. Application for the film and to the photo competition section is completely independent from each other.
- One can apply in the categories of short feature film, experimental (including animation) or documentary.
- the length of each work be no more than:
  - in case of experimental films and animation films: 10 minutes,
  - short feature film: 15 minutes,
  - documentary: 20 minutes.
- except from the films of film university students if the film was made during their studies for them the time limit is: 30 minutes.

You can read the terms and conditions for taking part in the festival on our homepage :

http: <http://www.faludiakademia.hu/?m=130&am=115&lang=en>